AIR CONGESTION OVER CALIFORNIA—This map locates the major air base routes, broken lines, and the heavy concentration of military airfields, numbers, in southern California. Monday's collision of an airliner and a military jet aircraft killing 49 persons has brought demands for tighter control of aircraft flying from civilian terminals, military bases and aircraft plant test strips. Private flying further increases the aerial congestion, with more than 4,000 small planes registered in the Greater Los Angeles area. (AP Wirephoto)

Sedalia Pays 'Good Will' Visit to WAFB

Mayor Silverman, Delegation Meets With Base Officials

A gesture to cement good will between Sedalia and the Whiteman Air Force Base personnel was made this week by members of the city administration who visited Col. Harold Humfeld, commander of the 340th Bomb Wing, and Col. W. C. Lewis, base commander.

The Sedalia delegation was composed of Mayor Abe Silverman, Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin, Councilmen Paul Hausman and Woodrow Garrison, City Magistrate Thomas T. Keating, City Attorney James E. Durely and City Counselor Henry C. Salverter.

Councilman Earl Paxton, chairman of the police committee, who was in New York, and Councilman Ronald Snively were unable to attend.

The delegation met with Col. Humfeld, Col. Lewis, and the following officers of the base: Lt. Col. Robert E. Cassidy, information service officer; Maj. Harwell Jones, provost marshal, and Capt. Thomas Casselman, judge advocate.

Mayor Silverman requested the meeting, after which Col. Humfeld suggested a dinner session.

Col. Humfeld reported it was the first time in his tours of duty that a city administration had requested a meeting of good will and it was most appreciated by his officers and himself.

"Although it was not an official meeting, it certainly is wonderful to be able to work with such people as you have in Sedalia," Col. Humfeld remarked.

Speaking in behalf of the Sedalia delegation, Silverman stated, "It was a most successful meeting and gave us an opportunity to strengthen our relationship with Whiteman Air Force Base as well as an opportunity to discuss matters pertaining to both the City of Sedalia and the air base."

Center Receives Citation For Local Service

The Crippled Children's Center of Sedalia has received a citation from the Lane Bryant Annual Awards in recognition of outstanding community service for 1957 and is being considered for one of these national awards to be presented Nov. 13, 1958, at the Plaza in New York.

The Crippled Children's Center was nominated for this award by the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, civic activities division, P. A. Silvers, director.

The Lane Bryant Annual Awards of $1,000 to an individual—and $1,000 to a group were established in 1948 to encourage voluntary participation in efforts that benefit home and community life. The Awards Committee consists of: Jacqueline Cochran, president; Jacqueline Cochran, Inc.; Frank Stanton, president, Columbia Broadcasting System, Inc.; William E. Stevenson, president, Oberlin College; Joseph N. Welch, senior partner, Hale and Dorr and Mrs. Arthur Hays Sulzberger.

All nominations are screened by the Bureau of Applied Social Research at Columbia University under the supervision of Dr. Robert K. Martin.

Highway 50 Hearing Will Be Held May 21

A public hearing will be held May 21 at the Pettis County courthouse on the proposed relocation of Highway 50 which would bypass Sedalia.

The meeting, announced by M. J. Snider, district engineer for the State Highway Department, will be held in the county court room and will begin at 2 p.m.

John Dalton Will Address Kiwanis Club

President Eisenhower, the governors of several states and mayors in many cities across the country have issued proclamations designating Thursday, May 1, as Law Day, and have urged Bar Associations and civic organizations across the country to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

The program of the Sedalia Kiwanis Club will be devoted to such an observance this Thursday noon at the Bothwell Hotel.

Judge Dimmitt Hoffman will read President Eisenhower's proclamation and the Honorable John M. Dalton, Attorney General of the state, will deliver the principal address.

The local club is very fortunate in procuring Dalton for this occasion when there are considerable demands upon his time. He has been an attorney general who has demonstrated great political integrity and as is often said, according to those who have observed his service in conducting this office for the benefit of all the people regardless of politics. He is in his second term as attorney general for the state. He is a member of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association and is now president of the National Association of Attorneys General.

Henry C. Salverter is Kiwanis program chairman for the month of May and has invited local members of the Bar Association as his guests for this occasion.

The program of the Sedalia Kiwanis Club will be devoted to such an observance this Thursday noon at the Bothwell Hotel.

Broadway Trees Removed

Others Trimmed For New Street Lighting System

One part of the Broadway improvement project has been completed, that of removal of trees and stumps from the parkways. The job of trimming other trees to prepare for the installation of a completely new street light system has also been finished.

Bob Wegener, of the Wegener Tree Service, whose firm had the tree contract, with the Highway Department, reported his work was completed late Friday. He reported 243 trees had to be removed from the parkings on the north side of the street, and 20 old stumps in the area had to be disposed of.

The trees and stumps had to be removed for the widening of the street on that side of the highway. Only a few trees of the 243 were taken out on the south side of the highway, these trees having been removed several years ago to make way for the present improved street lighting.

In addition, there were 437 trees which had to be topped and trimmed for the Missouri Public Service Co. for the newest of light systems which will be installed.

Discussing the tree work, Wegener reported that due to the grading and removal of excess dirt on parkways, it has been necessary for the contractor to go close to some trees, resulting in roots being exposed. Some of these trees may die as a result of this construction work, but not due to the tree trimming, he said.

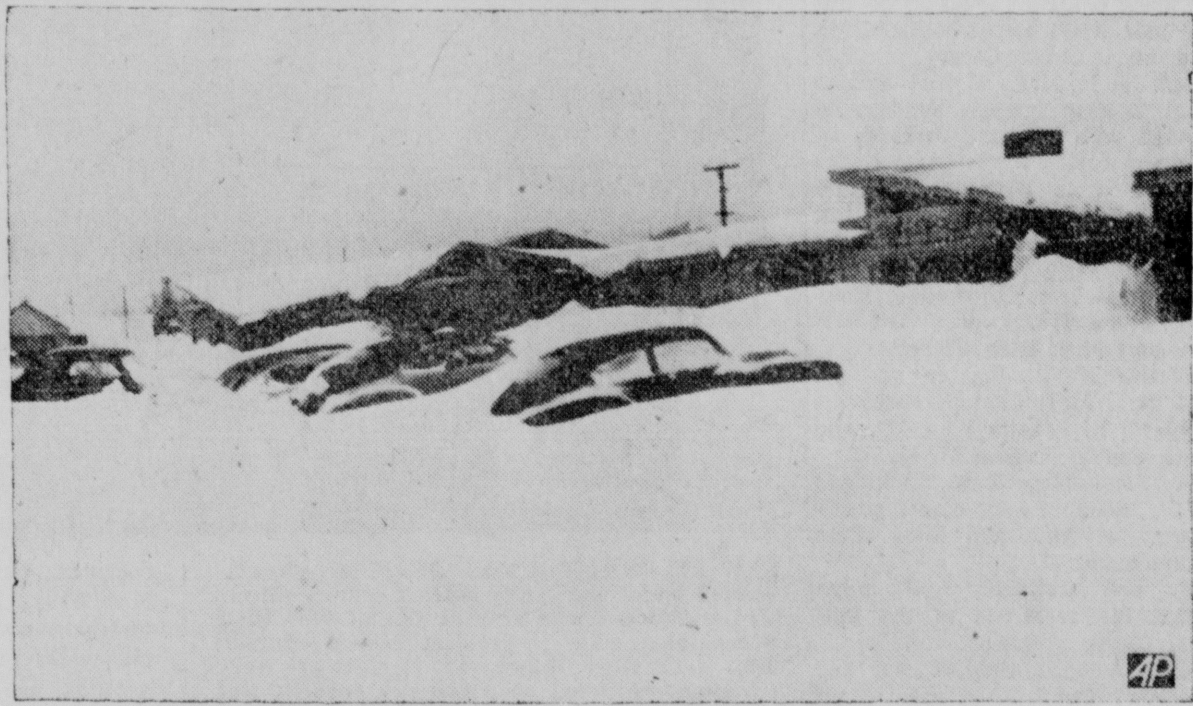

However, Wegener also explained, the trimming and topping of many of the trees will have a tendency to save them. This has reduced the nourishment needed for the growing trees, these trees will in time grow new feeder roots which will replace the damaged ones. He also explained there is a chance these exposed roots may cause some damage to only one side of the tree.

With the clearing and digging for the drainage tile, the roots in many cases were not exposed long, being covered again as soon as the tile was placed. However, the grading for the widening of the highway has exposed some of the roots which are closer to the top soil, and these are the ones which may suffer the greatest.

The fact the contractors have a time limit for completion of the Broadway contract adds to the possibility the roots may be covered sooner than expected and serious damage may not occur, but there is still the chance the roots were damaged in the grading process. "There are many factors regarding tree life," Wegener explained, "but I am confident our tree trimming will have done more good than harm for the trees in keeping them growing."

Tuesday Evening at the Center

Crippled Children's Center Staff Will Present Program

Evidence that the staff of the local Crippled Children's Center is becoming more and more professionally skilled and trained in the performance of their duties will be exhibited at the center on Tuesday, April 29, at 8 p.m.

Since a number of the regular staff, along with several volunteer helpers, attended the International Council for Exceptional Children at Kansas City on April 9 through April 12, many new ideas and plans have been outlined for the youngsters enrolled at the local center.

The program to be conducted Tuesday night will center principally around the material presented at the Kansas City meeting. Many of the volunteer helpers presently working at the center, as well as others who plan to devote some of their time helping at the center in the future, have asked that those attending the Council to present the information in the form of a program. Parents of children attending the center are also requested to be present.

Mrs. Joe Wright, kindergarten teacher, will discuss "Pre-school Education of Exceptional Children." Mrs. Lula Carson, the ungraded classroom teacher at the center, will talk on "Curriculum Development for the Educable Mentally Retarded." Mrs. Carson will also lead a discussion on "Music Therapy for the Exceptional Child."

Mrs. Donald Remer, teacher of social studies and science, is scheduled to lecture on "The Roll of Recreation in Preparing the Handicapped Child for School and Community Life."

Leon K. Whitney, speech therapist, will talk on two subjects, "The Psychological Appraisal of Handicapped Children" and "Educational Procedures for Trainable Retarded Children." Mrs. Rudolph Swope, director of the center, will discuss "Reporting to Parents."

Walter Gault, physical therapist, will give a review of the State Physical Therapy Assn. meeting in St. Louis recently. Harold Barwick, coordinator of the board of directors for the center, will give a summary of a conference on mental retardation held in Jefferson City several weeks ago.

A question and answer period will be conducted at the close of the meeting led by Mrs. Swope.

Youth Admits Destruction Of Train Cars

Robert E. Cornelius And Three Juveniles Picked Up By Police

The case of the malicious destruction of two Missouri Pacific passenger coaches the night of March 24th, was solved Saturday morning with the admission by Robert E. Cornelius, 18, to Chief Ralph Hamlin and Officer Perry Franklin of the part he played.

The case was believed cleared up a few days after the two railroad cars had been damaged to an estimated loss of more than $6,000, when a juvenile gave a statement regarding the incident and involved some other boys. Later the juvenile denied his statement was true.

His story, as given the police at the time, was such that it fitted along with everything that had occurred. However, his denial left a doubt in the minds of the officers, who continued to keep a watch out for any information which might clear up the case.

Franklin, checking several leads, was given a tip which led to the picking up of three juveniles and Cornelius.

Cornelius, questioned by Chief Hamlin, told a story of meeting the three juveniles. He said he first met one at Housel Park, and later the one boy with two other juveniles went to his house and met him and they decided to "kill some time." They went to Engineer and the Missouri Pacific railroad tracks and started walking toward town.

"We were not going any place in particular," he said in his statement. "We came to a passenger coach, we climbed into the car (which door we used I do not remember. Do not remember if the door was locked or unlocked). While we were in the car one of us, I do not remember, found an ax, sledge hammer and saw. I saw the handle out of the sledge.

"I left the car for a short time and when I went back inside a window was broken out and on one of the seats a hole had been cut and the stuffing was sticking out. It was too dark to see very good," he said. He then indicated it could have been any of the three juveniles. (Please Turn to Page 6 Column 6)

Check Schedule On Mail Box

New Mail Collection Schedule Will Be Inaugurated Monday

Patrons of the Sedalia post office are being requested to check the pick-up schedules on all collection boxes throughout the city when depositing mail. A new collection time on about 90 per cent of the collection boxes will be inaugurated Monday.

Postmaster Maurice Hogan explained the new schedule is in line with Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield's slogan "Move Today's Mail Today in a Business Like Way." It will provide users of the boxes in the business district and in residential areas a stepped-up dispatch time for mail deposited in the afternoon or early evening. Business firms and volume mailers are urged to mail as early in the afternoon as possible, preferably before 4 p.m.

Formerly the collection of mail was made with one vehicle. With the new schedule two vehicles will expedite the pick-up, getting a greater amount into the post office in time to be worked and dispatched on Missouri Pacific Trains 14 and 15. Closing time for mail on these trains is 5 p.m. Mail to Kansas City and points west can be dispatched on Train No. 11. Closing time at the post office is 6 p.m.

Letters deposited in the mail after the last time indicated on the time card on any box should be brought to the post office to be assured of dispatch on Missouri Pacific Trains 9 and 10. Closing time

Show Is Signed For State Fair

'International Spectacular' To Perform At Grandstand

The 1958 Missouri State Fair grandstand show has been signed by M. C. "Colie" Ervin, secretary of the fair, with the Hetzer Theatrical Agency of Huntington, West Va. The stage show, known as the "International Spectacular," will appear at the fair for five nights, opening on Monday, Aug. 18, and continuing through Friday night.

Ervin stated the fair is most fortunate in securing the Spectacular, as any show that is contracted through the Canadian "A" Circuit, where the Spectacular will play before coming to Missouri, is considered the top in stage entertainment.

International Spectacular is a completely new show from scenery to personnel. The stage scenery is patented by the company and can give three complete changes of scenery in a matter of minutes.

The production is under the direction of Russell Markert, producer of "Radio City Music Hall" of New York City. The show features five big production numbers with over 36 dancing girls in the chorus, plus seven big variety acts which consists of Walter Dicks International Diving Champions, starring Raul Garcia, the world famous Acapulco Cliff Diver, plus ten others making a display of comedy and diving skill.

The Wonder Act of the world features a boy and girl doing acrobatics a thousand feet in the air under a helicopter. This act is credited to drawing more people last year than any other act of its kind in the world.

Other big acts are: Hanlan and Clark, billed as two crazy people who do a comedy routine which is guaranteed to be a side splitter.

Antonucci's Amazing Chimps, which have appeared on many of the top television shows this past winter.

The Ochsenhirt Singers, featuring male and female solo artist, directed by Homer Ochsenhirt, famous motion picture, radio and television choir director.

The Florida Trio, a riotous comedy act, with a terrific punch, starring a Human Galliwog with seemingly no bones in his body. This act appeared on the Ed Sullivan show this past winter.

The Honey Sisters are a group of six talented girls recently making recordings and appearing in New York.

The scenery and lighting effects are all new and are being especially constructed at this time for the Spectacular.

Jim Hetzer, president of the company, informed Ervin that the show will open the first of July at the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede in Alberta, Canada, where the advance ticket sale has at this time exceeded $30,000.

Following the Missouri State Fair, the show moves to the Indiana State Fair which is considered one of the largest state fairs in the country.

Alert Police Officers Credited With Averting Large Downtown Fire

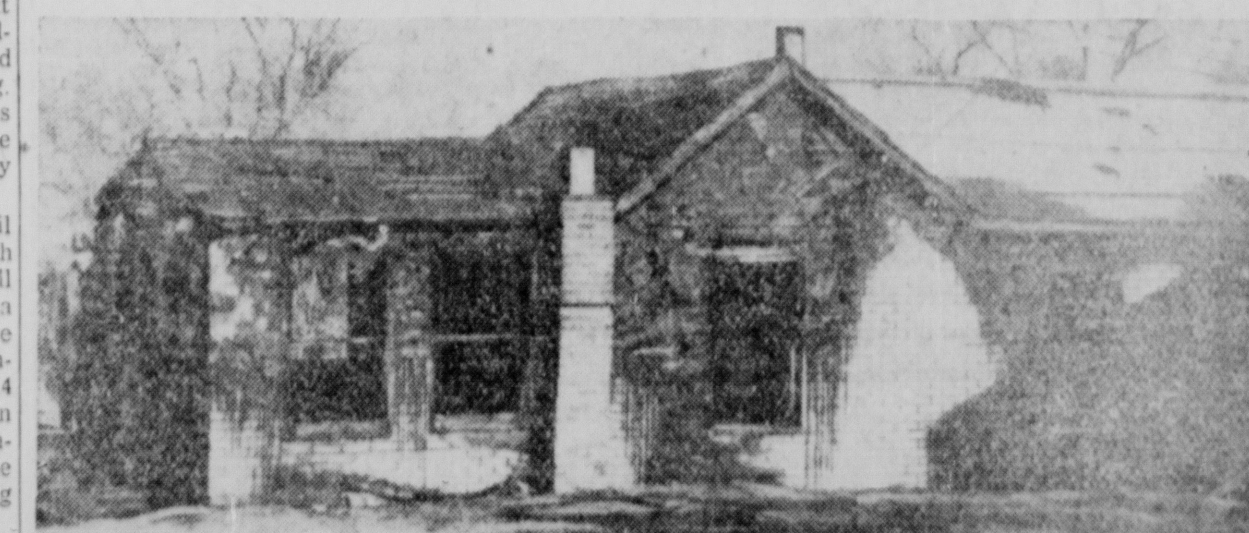

Quick action on the part of Officers Gene Herrick and Acting Assistant Chief Jack Couts at 2:47 a. m. Saturday probably averted another big downtown fire, in the 100 block on West Main.

Officer Herrick was making his rounds on the Main Street beat when he came upon a fire which had been started in a large trash box at the rear of the Western Auto Store. Herrick ran to police headquarters and notified Cecil Smith, desk sergeant, of the fire, and Smith turned in the fire alarm.

Assistant Chief Couts, who was at the station, and Herrick ran back to the fire. Arriving before the fire companies, they knocked several large cardboard boxes aside and pulled the wooden trash container away from the building. Flames already were leaping as high as a second story window when they got there.

Firemen quickly extinguished the flames with the use of a booster from the West Sedalia truck.

Why We Are Sure of EVERLASTING LIFE

Of all the questions that confront a human being, none is so important...none so perplexing...as: What happens after death?

A few will contend that there is no life hereafter...that man ends his days in a blank nothingness like animals. But for most people, there is a natural and instinctive hope that life on earth is only the first step toward a more joyous eternal life to come.

This instinctive hope, however, carries with it no conclusive proof that there is a life hereafter, and no obvious "blue-print" showing how to attain it. Because of this, many are bewildered — uncertain of the earthly way of life that will determine their eternal destiny.

Catholics, of course, do not claim that they alone are capable of having a greater knowledge of eternity than is available to any one else. But where some may be confused and uncertain, the Catholic finds certainty in his Church for that time when "the night cometh that no man can work."

You may hear it said that this is only a blind and superstitious faith...that Catholics are merely "whistling in the dark"...that the Catholic Church doesn't know any more about God's plan for our destiny than does any one else.

On the contrary, Catholics believe that the way of life prescribed by Jesus Christ is God's Own plan for our salvation. We believe further that Christ established the Catholic Church to perpetuate His teachings — and administer His sacraments...and that it has done so from the time of Peter down to this very moment.

It is often said that the faith placed in Christ by Catholics...and by other Christians, too...is unwarranted by facts and reason. A powerful answer to this will be found in our pamphlet: "The Way To Everlasting Life...The Catholic Church." Even though you may not be interested in the Catholic Faith, this pamphlet will help you better to understand God's plan for your life.

We invite all people of good will to write for a free copy of this pamphlet. It will be mailed in a plain wrapper and nobody will call on you. Write today...ask for Pamphlet No. MO-20.

MITEY-DRY®
Box of 3
$2.98

* Pat. and T.M. Pending

MITEY-DRY is the brand-new, long-lasting, washable diaper liner that goes next to baby's skin when pinned together with diapers. It works like magic—keeping baby's ENTIRE body dry. Made exclusively with magical EXPETHAL fabric, Mitey-Dry lets wetness pass through to diapers, and keeps it there. Then Mitey-Dry dries in a few minutes. This same action takes place every time baby wets. So, urine can't get a chance to soak into baby's tender skin... and that means diaper rash and discomfort don't have a chance either! And that's not all—Mitey-Dry also means good-bye to chills caused by baby sleeping against cold, wet diapers. One size fits any diaper.

SLEEPY-DRY diaper cover (ideal training pants later) makes sure all wetness stays in diapers; can't dampen nighties and crib clothes. Yet all-cotton Sleepy-Dry is porous, thereby invites cooling air in and lets it circulate throughout the diaper unlike old-fashioned, air-tight rubber and plastic pants—that's why dangerous ammonia compounds, which are caustic and burn baby's skin haven't a chance to form in the diaper area... and he's safe from this form of diaper rash too. It's really true! Two are better than one. Try Sleepy-Dry and Mitey-Dry together... and you'll find baby and crib completely dry on awakening—while wet diapers are sandwiched in between these two wonder-products!

Accidents

A two car accident occurred at 6 p. m. Friday at the corner of 13th and Lamine.

It involved a 1937 Chevrolet driven east on 13th by Charles Leroy Trelow, Jr., 1002 East Fourth, and a 1949 Buick driven north on Lamine by Harry W. Atherton, 215 South Grand.

Damage resulted to the front end of the Chevrolet and the left front door of the Buick.

Two occupants in a car which overturned, went down an eight foot embankment and crashed into a tree walked away with nothing more than minor bruises but the 1947 Mercury sedan was demolished. The accident occurred on the north curve of the Claycomb Hill about 9 p. m. Friday.

Trooper Pete Stohr, State Highway Patrol, who investigated the accident, reported the car was headed south on Highway 65 and, as it went into the curve, began skidding sideways. The car went off the highway on the left side, over the embankment, rolled once and stopped against the tree.

The car was believed to have had a low right rear tire which caused the car to start skidding. It was driven by Richard T. Hartman, 19, of 340th Maintenance Squadron, Whiteman AFB, who was accompanied by Miss Donnie Lee Talley, 17, Ottaville.

A wrecker from Parks Cities Service towed the car to Sedalia.

Two automobiles were damaged but occupants escaped injury in two collisions Friday evening. The two cars sideswiped at Main and Limit about 4:20 p. m., and at about 4:30 one ran into the rear of the other on the Main Street road between Law Enforcement and Motor Laws of Missouri.

The accidents were explained by Trooper Pete Stohr, State Highway Patrol, who made the investigation.

gation. Stohr reported one car, a 1932 Dodge sedan, was being driven east by Coy Lee Thomas, 61, of 520 West Pettis, and the other, a 1950 Ford coach, was driven west by G. L. Walz, 68, a farmer of Route 3.

At Main and Limit, a left door on the Ford came open and struck the left front fender of the Dodge as it was passing. Walz failed to stop and continued on, driving west toward his farm. Thomas turned his car around and finally caught up with the Ford and passed it after crossing Highway 50. Thomas pulled around the Ford and stopped down the road and the Ford crashed into the left rear of it.

The left front and left rear of the Dodge and the left door and right front of the Ford were damaged.

Walz was given a Highway Patrol summons to appear before Magistrate Frank T. Armstrong for careless and imprudent driving.

The Ford was towed to Sedalia by the Parks wrecker.

Hospital's Bible Taken From Waiting Room

The eighth of the Ten Commandments, "Thou shalt not steal," has been violated by someone who apparently has decided to take up reading the Holy Bible. The Bible which was in the waiting room of Bothwell Hospital has disappeared and has been gone several days.

The disappearance was noted several days ago, but no official report had been given the Sedalia police in the hope that the person who took the Bible did so only to borrow it and would soon return it to its original place in the waiting room.

The large Bible was presented to the hospital by the Mr. and Mrs. Club of the Federated Presbyterian Church, the latter part of February. It remained on the reading table for several weeks before someone apparently decided he needed it worse than others who might use it while sitting in the waiting room.

Members of the Mr. and Mrs. Club and the hospital would appreciate its return. The person who took it can return it with "no questions asked."

Sedalia Youths Held In Marshall After Gang Fight There

The parents of ten Sedalia youths were disturbed about 10:30 o'clock Saturday night when they received calls from the Sedalia police to go to Marshall to get their boys. They had been reported in a gang fight with boys in Marshall.

Three of the youths were reported to be 17 years old and were locked up, seven others were in the age range of 14 to 16 and were held for their parents at the Marshall police station.

According to local reports the "gang" met on West Second and announced a meeting place in Marshall, drove over there and started picking a gang fight.

Marshall Police "nipped it in the bud" and took the Sedalia "gang" to police headquarters. The Sedalia police were then notified and asked to call the parents and have them come after their boys.

The Marshall Police and the Sedalia Police have the names of boys from its town which have figured in such "meetings" and they can expect a "rough go" from the officers if they insist in switching.

Airman Is Stabbed In His Stomach

A Negro airman, Coleman Rodgers, 20, of the 340th A and E Squadron at Whiteman Air Force Base, was stabbed in the stomach by an unknown assailant Saturday night. The incident was reported to have taken place in the middle of Main and Osage shortly after 8 p. m.

Rodgers, according to the police report, was taken to the Bothwell Hospital by a friend, A/C Aldean Johnson, 23, also of Whiteman.

The airman, police reported, said a fellow unknown to them got into a scuffle with Rodgers near the east door of the Pacific Cafe on the sidewalk and stabbed him. Rodgers had more of a puncture wound that appeared to be deep in the stomach.

He was given emergency treatment at the hospital by Dr. John Lamy, after which he was taken to the Whiteman AFB hospital in an ambulance from the base. It was reported an emergency operation may be necessary to determine the seriousness of the wound.

Rodgers was questioned by Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin and Assistant Chief Jack Couts and told the officers he never saw the fellow around Sedalia before, nor did he believe the fellow was from the air base.

He described his assailant as a Negro about 25 years old, five feet, nine inches tall, weighing about 150 pounds, wearing a levi jacket, gray hat, having a moustache.

Assistant Chief Couts found a long blade jackknife in the middle of the street with the blade broken off at the handle. It was found about two feet from the curb.

Later witnesses reported three men were seen scuffling in the street with two others, three of the men ran toward the Missouri Pacific depot, and the other two, Rodgers and Johnson, went to the hospital.

High School Students Present Program At Progressive Club

Mrs. Charles Covey was hostess to the Knob Noster Progressive Club at her home in Knob Noster Tuesday afternoon. "Music, the Fourth Need of Man" was the title of a paper presented by Mrs. Covey.

High School music students presented several numbers. "Cuckoo" and "Holy, Holy, Holy," were sung by the girls' sextet, composed of Carol Conboy, Ellen Jeiderwimmer, Pamela Rose, Judy Wimer, Bobby Yokley and Alice Zink. The sextet received a first rating in the district contest held recently in Warrensburg. A flute trio, Pamela Rose, Donna Costigan, and Karen Becker, presented "Scherzino" by Metzgar, and this number had a second rating. A clarinet quartet, Bobby Yokley, Norma Oldfather, Judy Wimer and Ellen Jeiderwimmer, presented "Bohemian Suite" by J. Bradac. This quartet received a first rating. A piano solo was played by Pamela Rose, "Fantasia" No. 1 (Mozart). Pamela received a second rating. Billy Ann Baker sang a vocal solo, "In the Garden," with Mrs. Covey as accompanist.

Gary Kincade, the sophomore representative to Jefferson City, gave a most excellent account of the pilgrimage. Five dollars was contributed to a fund to help sponsor a junior to Boys State in Warrensburg in June and one dollar is to be sent to the anti-litterbug fund to help purchase gum stickers. Mrs. Covey served refreshments. The May meeting is a luncheon at Riggle's in Warrensburg.

The State Of Oratory...

With the first stirrings of the 1958 campaigns just a few months off, it seems fair to note that there are many complaints nowadays about the low state of political oratory.

Criticism in this field involves some delicate problems. We're not supposed to be electing actors, TV personalities, or polished speech-makers as such. Basically we seek men with a knowledge of practical affairs, and a talent for shaping them to the country's benefit.

Nevertheless, our representatives in government are not only accountable to us but they need our support and understanding if they are to perform well.

That means they have an obligation to report to us what they have done, what they will do, or both. And we have a right to hear this not simply when they are seeking office, but when they are actually serving.

Now no one says that our public servants, with certain exceptions, do not talk enough. The complaint is that most of them don't talk well.

We've heard a lot in recent years about how the advertising agencies are busy "selling" political candidates. The boys wear the right kind of glasses, put on blue shirts for television, let some of the wind out of their speeches. They even practice diction.

That's all to the good. But the trouble, according to the complainants, is content, not form. The candidates talk in weary, tattered slogans. Their posturings are stale. And most of the phrases they utter are unbelievably dull.

When they do try to liven up their spiel with "smart" phrases, too often the words sound contrived. You can just hear the speech doctor behind the candidate saying, "That'll get the headlines."

Real command of the English language ought to be standard equipment in politics. Unhappily it isn't, and probably it never will be for many run-of-mine politicians who lack the imagination to turn a phrase.

Just the same, there isn't much excuse for such failure at the higher levels of government. Communication with the people is a vital part of the public servant's job. Too many men now guiding our lives talk about the most urgent issue as if they were reading junk mail aloud.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Feuds Over Anti-Feuding Measure

(Editor's Note—With Drew Pearson in the Middle West, his column today is written by his associate, Jack Anderson.)

By JACK ANDERSON
WASHINGTON—The President's military reorganization plan, which is supposed to stop inter-service feuding, has started some dandy new feuds.

Feud No. 1—The armed services are feuding behind the scenes over the best way to halt their feuding. The Air Force favors the President's plan, the Navy is against it and the Army is split.

Through its civilian arms—the Navy League and Naval Advisory Council—the Navy is waging an undercover campaign against Ike's proposals. Retired Adm. J. W. Reeves, Jr., Advisory Council chairman, has called on his members to bring pressure on congressmen to defeat the President's reorganization plan.

Reeve's confidential letter warns: "Do not—repeat do not—speak as a member of the Advisory Council or Navy League but as an individual citizen. This personal contact is most important at this time either by telephone, wire or person-to-person approach."

Feud No. 2—Georgia's crusty, crafty Congress-man Carl Vinson, who has opened hostile hearing on the reorganization bill, is feuding with the White House over who should write the final version.

"I appreciate the President's interest," Vinson told White House aides bluntly, "but Congress is going to write the reorganization bill."

Vinson Forces Action
The caustic Georgian prepared a speech last week blasting Ike for talking about reorganization but sending Congress no formal recommendations. The White House got advance wind of the speech and in order to thwart Vinson rushed Ike's proposed bill to the press a couple hours before Vinson took the floor.

It remains to be seen whether the reorganization battle will be a feud to end all feuds.

Whatever the outcome, however, it promises to be the greatest military debate since the Air Force was split off from the Army in 1947 and the three sister services were sent to live together in the Pentagon in what was supposed to be one big happy family.

Instead they put on a display of eye-scratching, back-biting, and hair-pulling that drove the first Secretary of Defense, the late James Forrestal, literally out of his mind. Interservice rivalry has gone so far that the services now keep secrets, including vital missile information, from each other. Thousands of classified papers are stamped for Army, Navy, or Air Force eyes only.

At the same time, the defense machinery has become hopelessly clogged with red tape. Gen. Maxwell Taylor, the Army chief, has complained that 19 civilian officials stand between him and the commander-in-chief. All 19 have a say in how the Army should be run.

Wilson's "No-Men"
Former Secretary of Defense Charlie Wilson surrounded himself with 29 deputy or assistant secretaries, similar to General Motors vice presidents, who had authority to say "no" but seldom "yes." In other words, they had a negative authority which does not permit them to make high policy decisions but only to block them. They are still functioning.

Wilson built up a gigantic, unwieldy staff of over 2,400 employees, divided into empires within empires. These empires are headed by deputies and assistants who keep adding more employees on the theory that the more Indians they command the bigger chief they become.

The result, however, is to impede and obstruct decision-making. A new idea must pass through stifling layers of bureaucracy. By the time it has run the gauntlet of assistants, it is weighted down with so many comments that the Secretary of Defense has difficulty wading through the accumulated memos.

Eisenhower and Vinson have different ideas about how to correct the abuses. Ike wants to downgrade the three services and give the Secretary of Defense more power. His plan, however, abolishes the right of military subordinates to bring their differences over defense policies to Congress. This is a right for which Congress will battle to the end.

Ike's Ideas "Too Drastic"

The president seriously considered stripping the three services of their departmental standing and making their civilian chiefs undersecretaries of Defense for Army, Navy, and Air. Secretary of Defense McElroy persuaded the President, however, that this would be too drastic.

On the other hand, Vinson wants to bolster the independence of the three services by bringing the secretaries of the Army, Navy, and Air Force into the powerful, policy-making National Security Council.

His plan would also streamline the Pentagon more drastically than the President's recommendations by slashing the secretary's staff from 2,400 to 600 employees and eliminating 14 deputy and assistant secretaries. It would also curb the power of the defense comptroller whose fiscal policies have often determined defense decisions.

Meanwhile the battle lines are drawn and Washington is settling down to a good fight.

Racket Buster Launches Drive

The Justice Department's new racket buster, 34-year-old Milton Wessel, has already started collecting information from the FBI, Secret Service, Internal Revenue, and Narcotics Bureau on the nation's 100 top racketeers.

Wessel is also forming a 15-man task force of attorneys who will trace the interlocking operations of the gangland chiefs, then crack down by every legal means to break up the big, multi-billion-dollar underworld rackets.

Originally the plan had been to keep Wessel's task force undercover until it collected enough evidence to present to a special grand jury, probably in early 1960. But rumors began to leak out and Attorney General Bill Rogers decided to issue an announcement.

Justifiable Homicide

Lana Turner is always news but her recent space in the limelight could hardly be called complimentary. Cheryl, her teenage daughter by one of her four husbands, Stephen Crane, killed her mother's boyfriend. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of justifiable homicide upon Lana's own testimony. Cheryl, a minor, was not required to appear.

Lana Turner was recently nominated as one of the candidates for the academy award in the motion picture industry. That is a great honor. The private behavior of an actress seems to have nothing to do with her ability, acclaim or popularity as a performer. It is the acting which is judged and not the actress.

In testifying at the hearing on the murder of her gangster sweetheart by her own daughter, Lana put on her best act. But this time she was the real Lana Turner, not in a movie queen's role.

The psychiatrists no doubt consider Lana's own mixed up and unhappy childhood responsible for her adult behavior, in addition to her fame, wealth and attractiveness. Her daughter grew up a "poor little rich girl" in more ways than one.

Amid Sad Statistics

Signs That Industrial Slump Is Flattening Out Are Seen

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK — A few first signs that the industrial slump may be flattening out are sighted today amid the welter of unpleasant statistics on the recent past.

They are too scattered to foretell a turning in the trend but businessmen are watching them closely. More company executives predict a turn for the better will be apparent in the final months of this year and the upswing in industrial activity will be marked in the first half of 1959.

In the less industrialized areas the slump may stay very mild indeed.

Here are some of the first signs of a change, as cautiously reported by business executives:

New orders for machine tools have risen in each of the last three months. Although these are far behind the volume a year ago the National Machine Tool Builders Assn. notes that in past recessions rising machine tool sales have led the way to recovery in the capital goods industry.

A gain in new orders of late is also reported by Ralph J. Cordner, chairman of General Electric, who thinks this may herald an upturn in durable goods demand.

A similar rise in sales in recent days is noted by Crawford H. Greenwalt, president of Du Pont, who cautiously offers it as a sign that the chemical industry may be ready for a rebound.

Demand for fir lumber has increased and prices have rebounded sharply. This may be tied in with a report that the change in terms for Veterans Administration guaranteed mortgages, particularly ly the new no down payment rule, have revived house sales in some areas.

J. I. Case reports its tractor sales are now running 25 per cent ahead of last year. In this connection, the Agriculture Department notes that farm income now is running at an annual rate of 13 billion dollars, compared with 11½ billion in 1957. This means that a sizable part of the population should have more money to spend this year.

The Department of Commerce adds that consumer spending continues high for all items except durable goods. The maker of one line of soft goods, Colgate-Palmolive, says sales this year easily should top last. And tobacco and drug firms report rising sales and profits.

In the prediction department are some other industries currently in trouble.

Augustus C. Long, chairman of the Texas Co., believes that the excess in oil inventories has nearly been corrected, offering the chance of better days in the latter part of the year.

A revival of demand for steel is expected before fall by Marcus J. Aurelius, vice president of U.S. Steel, and Charles M. White, chairman of Republic Steel.

Various utility executives note that consumer demand for power stays high and even is increasing enough in some areas to offset any loss of sales to industry.

These reports in themselves don't spell a return of boom times. But they do show that everything isn't as bad as some people paint it.

Less Resistance To Trading Stamp Plan

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — So certain are trading stamps here to stay that the Voice of America tells the story "as a typical part of American life."

Even complaints to the Department of Agriculture from small independent merchants who do not give stamps, are on the decrease. And the Federal Trade Commission found no illegal practices involved in this trading stamp activity in which more than half the 49½ million families participate.

For some time the Department of Agriculture has been watching to see if retail merchants were using the stamp plan to raise their prices. A new report on this phase will come out shortly, but don't expect a wholesale indictment.

(One independent study by Dr. Albert Haring of the University of Indiana showed that in areas where stamps were used, prices not only had not increased, but had decreased.)

Housewives love the idea of trading stamps, which make it possible to get "something for nothing" . . . or so it seems. Everything from an egg beater to a fur coat!

Lately there's a trend toward housewives donating their stamp books to some charity. . . and one Church group collected so many they were able to get their preacher a Cadillac!

The squadron, a unit of the Second Marine Aircraft Wing stationed at the Marine Corps Air Station in Cherry Point, N.C., competed against other air units in displaying the most efficient and productive methods of air combat training.

Russian System Reveals Surprises In Competition

By Joseph A. Dear
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — The first fragile green of the willows along the Virginia bank of the Potomac already is yielding to the warmer colors of real spring.

Beautiful, careless season. Who can worry now? All the cherry blossoms were blown away on the winds of a Sunday shower. But the tranquil picture is unshattered.

How typical this is of our collective outlook. Russian communism is the decisive challenge to the American way. But after we respond to the threat of the moment there is the inevitable relapse to lotus eating. Just as there is still plentiful springtime beauty when the blossoms are gone, so there is enough of the good life left after the latest communist thrust is countered.

It's all very frightening. To survive the struggle will involve more than a dash through a summer storm. It is the whirlwind we face. Yet so few of us know it.

Did you know, for example, that Dr. Edward Teller, of H-bomb fame, is an ardent advocate of the Atlantic Union concept? A great challenge demands a great response. An economic, military, and political union of the Atlantic democracies is a grand concept.

Teller, of course, is the darling of the let's-keep-testing bloc. The bloc that favors continued testing of nuclear weapons is marked by a certain, and rather illogical, stand-patism. Its members warn against the "sputnik attitude." The sum of their advice is not to do anything we weren't planning to do anyhow.

Dr. Teller, by way of contrast, has described sputnik as a "second Pearl Harbor." To men of science, the implications of sputnik are clear. United States must expect other body blows before the gap is closed. The Russian system is producing scientists and engineers who, in turn, will produce other shocks.

But who would have believed this ten years ago? Indeed, in the face of fact it is still difficult to appreciate the obvious: the education program of the evil communist system is in some respects more efficient than ours.

And who, ten years ago, would have believed that the Russians could compete against free enterprise? But that is happening. Russian aluminum is underselling Canadian aluminum on the British market. And the major Canadian producer was, until recently, intimately connected with the major American producer.

Russian salesmen are enjoying great success at the moment in selling all non-ferrous metals except copper. And if the Russians can compete on this narrow front, broadening competition must be anticipated.

One would suppose that this prospect would shatter the tranquil picture. So far, it hasn't, though stronger winds are gathering.

Why Delay Sputniks For Six Months?

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
AP Science Reporter

NEW YORK — Is a secret Sputnik III circling the earth, painted black, beeping out its message only over the Soviet Union?

Is a rocket made in the Soviet Union all set to land on the moon? Or has the U.S.S.R. been having rocket launching troubles?

These are some of the questions asked in a sweepstakes of speculation, all rising from the fact it has been almost six months since Sputnik II rose Nov. 3.

Why the six months delay in Sputniks? Is the Soviet Union preparing some spectacular new step in our young new space age?

A secret Sputnik is possible, says one prominent U.S. rocket scientist.

"The Russians might have been shocked and awed by our reactions when they were first with their Sputniks," he says. "Maybe they don't want to stir us up any more, so they're waiting awhile."

"Maybe they even sent up a secret sputnik to continue their scientific work. Paint it black instead of polishing it up, and it would be very hard ever to see. Fix it so it broadcasts only on command signal from the ground in Russia, and radio stations else where could miss it entirely."

Dr. Wernher von Braun, U.S. Army rocket specialist, expressed a different view.

The Soviet apparently used powerful ocean leaping military rockets, their ICBMs, to send up Sputniks I and II, he says.

Production of ICBMs could well be limited, he said. The military has had the call on the subsequence ones, and been testing them. The scientists have had to wait their turn for the rockets for more or better Sputniks.

Another publicly voiced suggestion is the Soviets have been shooting for the moon, but missing.

Or even that rockets sending up bigger and heavier Sputniks have crashed and failed. Since no prior announcement is made of an intention to launch, no explanations of any failures need be given.

At the other end is speculation the Soviets are saving a big shoot, or a big announcement of an accomplished fact, for its greatest propaganda value. This could be during the May Day celebrations, the visit of Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser late this month, or the time of a summit meeting.

Something is apparently brewing.

A Hungarian Communist youth newspaper recently quoted a Soviet scientist, Nikolai Varvarov, as saying the U.S.S.R. would soon launch a satellite weighing more than five tons.

Academician Anatoli Blagonravov, a rocket specialist, was quoted in a Soviet radio broadcast as saying the Soviets are close to sending a man up in a rocket with safe return. A one-stage rocket carrying 1½ tons of equipment soared up 295 miles and landed at the planned location, he said.

Odds and Ends
By News Staff

IT WAS DURING a recent electrical storm that a small boy called to his father in the night.

The father got up and went into the room where the child was, asking him what he wanted.

The youngster told him he wanted a paper hankie.

"There's a whole box of them right by your bed," said the father, a little disgusted. "Why don't you just get one yourself?"

"I can't!" said the little boy, as another clap of thunder rolled overhead. "I have to keep my hands over my ears." — H.L.

Getting up quietly so she would not wake her mother, the woman got ready for work and, also, fixed her lunch to take along so she wouldn't have to go home at noon.

Later in the morning, she talked to her mother on the telephone and told her she had fixed her lunch and wouldn't be home. The mother went on doing the things she wanted to do because today she had no lunch to get. She would just eat a little something and that would be it. A short time after 12 she was surprised when the front door opened and in walked her daughter.

"I thought you took your lunch today," her mother said, "so I did not fix anything."

The daughter stopped short. She had completely forgotten she had her lunch with her and, from force of habit, had just gone on home as usual. But, since she was there the two of them got busy and managed to get ready a little something to eat.

When she went back to work her co-workers looked at her curiously. "I thought you brought your lunch today," one of them said. So she had to admit what she had done. And that evening she carried the little sack with her lunch in it on back home. —H. L. ed that it is repetitious and a waste of time just to send up satellites—that after a couple have gone up, the next step is some could be the shot for the moon.

Soviet scientists and officials know the plan and the answer. Meanwhile, they just let the speculation run.

Missouri Designated Commercial Wheat State for Next Year

Missouri's share of the 55-million-acre national wheat allotment for 1959 will be 1,330,083 acres, D. G. Monsees, chairman of the Missouri State ASC Committee, has announced. This compares with a 1958 wheat allotment of 1,273,623 acres.

Since Missouri's share of the national allotment exceeds 25,000 acres, the State has been designated as a "commercial" wheat State for 1959. This means that local eligible wheat growers will vote June 20 on whether to use the marketing quotas for next year's crop. The referendum will also be a factor in determining the level of price supports on 1959-crop wheat.

A farmer will be informed of the wheat acreage allotment for his farm in advance of the referendum, Chairman Monsees declared.

The Rev. R. C. Reihert, filled the pulpit at the Syracuse Baptist Church Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Bob Potter, who was holding a revival at High Point Church, Concord Association. The Rev. Potter's brother, Bill Potter, talked Sunday evening on "The People and Their Customs in Japan and Korea".

Nichols Hurls 1-Hit Shutout at Mexico

Tigers Batter Bulldogs 15-0 In CMC Tilt

Run Season Record To 13-1 In Gaining First CMC Victory

The Smith-Cotton Tigers' pitching staff continued to prove itself supreme Friday as sophomore fireballer Nicky Nichols threw a one-hit shutout at the Mexico Bulldogs while the other eight Tigers busied themselves with stealing 16 bases and collecting 11 hits to rout the visitors 15-0 in the Bengals' first Central Missouri Conference game of the season. The game was played on the Liberty Park diamond. The Tigers ran their season record to 13-1 and have a 12 game winning streak going at the moment.

Centerfielder Jim Mateja all but stole the show from Nichols as he collected three hits—one a two-bagger—in three times at bat, scored three runs, batted in three and swiped four bases.

The only hit off Nichols came in the fourth inning when Mexico's Bailey singled. He went no further. Nichols fanned eleven and issued five bases on balls in going the distance. He helped his own cause with two doubles in four times at bat, scored twice, stole a base and batted in three runs.

The Tigers jumped on Mexico pitcher Waggett in the second inning for eight runs on five hits, two walks, a sacrifice, an error, and three stolen bases. Twelve Bengals came to bat. Bob Garrison led off with a base on balls, Mateja ripped a single and Don Callis walked to load the bases. Dick Woodsmall flied out to center and Tom Herrick sacrificed Garrison home for a 1-0 lead. Larry Decker reached first via an error on Waggett to reload the bases before Nichols slammed a double good for two more. Dale Miller followed up with a single to score Nichols and Decker, then stole second before Marshall Bryan poked a single to drive him home. Bryan went to second as Garrison walked for the second time in the inning, then stole third before Mateja crashed a two-run double for the second hit of the frame. Callis popped out to the pitcher to end the inning.

They continued their assault in the third with two more on a walk, two singles and a double. Woodsmall led off with a free pass to first and Herrick fanned. Decker got a single and Nichols again doubled to score one run. Miller followed with his run scoring single before Bryan grounded out to the pitcher and Garrison fanned.

They added four more in the fourth on three hits, seven stolen bases, two bases on balls and a sacrifice. The Tigers finished the scoring in the fifth frame without a hit when Garrison fanned, Bryan walked, then proceeded to steal second, third, and finally home. Callis popped out to first base, Woodsmall walked and Herrick popped up to the pitcher to end the inning.

Mexico's Waggett whiffed five and gave up eight walks.

Hartack Breaks Leg When Thrown From a Horse

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Jockey Willie Hartack broke his left leg when thrown from a horse in the starting gate at Churchill Downs Saturday.

The nation's leading jockey for the past three years was rushed to St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital and was X-rayed.

Hartack's agent, Chick Lanj, said the leg was broken between the ankle and the knee. He said the 25-year-old jockey scheduled to ride favorite Tim Tam in next Saturday's Kentucky Derby, was "not in too much pain."

Lanj said Hartack asked him in the ambulance en route to the hospital "if there is any kind of cast they could put on it so he could ride Saturday."

Hartack was on Quail Egg, owned by H. H. Mundy, a 2-1 favorite in the second race when the horse reared in the starting gate.

Hartack was thrown backwards to the ground. Lanj said the jockey was pinned between the horse and the starting gate.

Hartack said "I felt something snap" when thrown.

Athletics Whip White Sox 7-1

CHICAGO (AP)—The third place Kansas City Athletics sprayed 13 hits and collected five unearned runs Saturday to defeat the Chicago White Sox, 7-1, behind the steady seven-hit pitching of Ralph Terry.

Eleven of their blows came off Dick Donovan, trying for his first victory after two setbacks. He lasted only five innings and left with Kansas City ahead, 4-0.

Two of those runs were unearned when first baseman Earl Torgeson threw wild to second base in the fifth after singles by Bob Cerv and Woody Held. Four singles produced the A's first two runs in the third.

The Athletics piled up three more unearned runs in the sixth with the help of another bad toss to second by Torgeson and third baseman Bubba Phillips' fumble of Cerv's slow grounder. Frank House's single with the bases filled was good for two runs.

Sports Scraps

By D. KELLY SCRUTON

TWO Sedalia boys are doing alright in baseball, and both have received their assignments from the Chicago White Sox. The boys apparently showed up well in spring training from reports received here and drew good assignments for the 1958 season.

Bobby Case, son of Mrs. Daisy Case, 309 East Second, has been sent to Colorado Springs while "Skip" Shultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shultz, has drawn an assignment at Dubuque, Ia.

Bobby's most recent information indicated he was traveling to Arizona and New Mexico for games, but is expected to go back to Colorado Springs, according to his mother.

Skip is enroute to Dubuque from Hollywood, Calif., for baseball playing.

Case and Skip both are well known at home playing all the way through Smith-Cotton High School baseball. Ban Johnson, and with their college teams. Bobby played with Central Missouri State before inking the paper with the White Sox, while Skip was hurling for the University of Missouri before his signature decorated the contract with the Sox.

Bobby, in 1957, played with Davenport, Ia.

THE Smith-Cotton High School baseball team, in spite of a 28-game schedule, is holding up better than any team in recent years. Up to Saturday night the Tigers had played 14 games, won 13 and lost one, and support 12-game winning streak.

Their recent wins were the past weekend when the Tigers defeated Cole Camp 4-1 for the Sub-District Championship, and now will meet North Kansas City the first week in May, in the District, here for one game. The second week, if the Tigers win, they will play a Springfield team here in the Regional, and victory in this game sends the locals to Busch Stadium in St. Louis to the state tournament.

The Tigers have a rather busy schedule including the tournament games. Monday the locals play the Kewpies from Hickman Hi of Columbia here in a conference game; Wednesday a journey to Kansas City for a game with Park Hill; and on May 2, Pem Day of Kansas City comes here.

May 5, a conference game with the Jefferson City Jays, there; May 8, Mexico, a conference tilt, there; May 12, Jefferson City comes here for another conference game; May 14, the Tigers go to Columbia to play Hickman, conference game and May 16, non-conference game with Rockhurst.

The Tigers have plenty of BALTIMORE (AP)—Al Pilarcik's ground single in the sixth inning was the only hit Baltimore managed Saturday off New York Yankee pitcher Bob Turley, who shut out the Orioles for the second straight time by a 2-0 score.

Pilarcik stole second after his single went through the shortstop hole and was the only Oriole to reach that far. Four others languished on first after Turley walked them.

The former twirler for the Orioles struck out five in going the first 11 innings of the 1958 season without giving up a run. The Orioles got only four hits off him on April 20.

Four Meet Records Fall Two Collegiate Marks Set In Drake Relays

DES MOINES (AP)—Four new meet records, including a 4:07.9 mile triumph by Oregon's Jim Grelle, brightened an otherwise drab day at the 49th Drake Relays Saturday.

The two-day track and field meet produced a total of two new American collegiate and eight Drake marks. Saturday's concluding 20-event program was witnessed by 15,000 fans shivering in cloudy 46-degree weather.

Grelle, runnerup in last year's NCAA mile to Ron Delany, ran down surprising Alex Henderson of Arizona State of Tempe in the final lap to win the collegiate mile by 10 yards Saturday. The former record was 4:10.7 set by Deacon Jones of Iowa last year.

Henderson, an Australian sophomore at Arizona State, Friday unreeled a superlative two-mile effort of 8:51.3 which bettered the American college record of 8:55.

Honors in the university relays competition were evenly divided with Kansas, Texas, Nebraska and Oklahoma State each taking two races during the two days.

Defending champion Jack Smyth of the University of Houston, broke his own Drake hop, step and jump record with a distance of 49 feet, 9 inches. This topped his former mark of 48-5 1/2 set last year.

The same Tennessee A & I quartet which won the college 440 relay also produced a new college division record in capturing the 800 relay in 1:25.6. The old record of 1:25.8 was fashioned by North Texas State in 1952.

The busy Tennessee A & I foursome included Tom Torian, Vero West, Ed Adams and John Moon. It's 440 relay time was 41.7, four tenths of a second slower than the meet mark.

Another new college division record came as Howard Payne's Stan Owen, Lou Hayes, Don Shepard and Bobby Pullig won the two-mile relay in 7:39.3, a tenth of 4 Big Names In Kentucky Derby Sat.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—There are four names that stand famed in the 84th running of the famed Kentucky Derby to be decided under the twin spires of historic Churchill Downs next Saturday. They are Silky Sullivan, Tim Tam, Jewel's Reward, Nadir—not necessarily in that order.

When the massed bands play "My Old Kentucky Home" at 4:30 p. m. central daylight time, and the mint julep glasses are set aside momentarily as the horses line up in the gate, here's going to be more excitement than this old cavalry post has seen in many a year. The lure of Silky Sullivan, the "flying Irishman," may bring out a record crowd if the weather is right.

That goes for the whole country, too, as millions line up in front of the television set (CBS, 3:15 to 3:45 p. m. CST) to look on in the great thoroughbred show.

The first big question is the size of the field, which may be 14 to 18 of the finest 3-year-olds in the land. That will be vital for Silky Sullivan, the come-from-last California sensation. A large field will be all the tougher for Silky to maneuver through, and any mishap can cost a derby.

Silky usually lags behind, then shifts gears and takes after the others as he did when he won the Santa Anita Derby for his co-owners, Tom Ross and Philip Klipstein. He'll meet much stiffer company in this hallowed mile and one quarter battle.

Another question involves Tim Tam, from the Calumet Farm of Mrs. Gene Markey and Jewel's Reward from the Maine Chance Farm of Mrs. Elizabeth N. Graham.

Jewel's Reward finished first in the Flamingo at Hialeah last winter, but was disqualified for bumping Tib Tam half a dozen times in the stretch drive. What will the answer be this time?

Nadir, like Silky, is a big horse, and apparently is improving after an illness that knocked him out in December. Nadir won the World's richest race, the $277,150 Garden State Stakes as a 2-year-old last October. He is owned by Bull Hancock.

Rough Crowds.
VANCOUVER (AP)—The B. C. Soccer Referees' Association may seek police protection for games at Templeton Park due to recent rioting. "Otherwise," said President Jack Jones, "we'll run out of officials."

True Davis, Jr., named his 1958 Kentucky Derby candidate, Saint Joseph, for his home town in Missouri.

Gene Williams, rolling a 253, hauled in high single game of the week honors. Johnny Hazell's 248 was good for runner-up spot and Red Morris came up with a big 246 for third.

Oda Boss rolled a 233 to take high game honors in women's competition during the week. She also had high series of the week in women's bowling with a 559. Ann Welliver had second high game with a 212 and second high series with a 546.

DeMarco Tops Tray
Paul DeMarco became the new champion of the Bowling at Broadway televised match series by defeating Fran Tray in Friday night's match, 566-594. Tray, off from his usual sharp game, was plagued by seven splits.

DeMarco won the opening game 174-159. The tempo picked up during the second match and the Texas engineer nipped Tray 193-190. The finale also went to DeMarco, 199-155. For the three-game set, DeMarco collected 12 strikes, 15 spares and suffered three splits and one error. Tray bagged 13 strikes and 11 spares. He made three errors.

Chiefs Will Practice Sunday Afternoon

The Ban Johnson Chiefs will practice at 1:30 p. m. Sunday at Liberty Park. Everyone planning to play is requested to be there. This includes those presently playing high school baseball as they will be eligible for Ban Johnson after the high school season is over.

More than 700 youngsters from age 8 through age 12 are ready for the Little League assignments. Equipment is now being issued by Robert Johnson at the Russell Bros., store to the managers of the various teams, and many of the teams are starting to get together although assignments have not been made and will not be made until after the auction on Monday night, May 5.

The teams getting together are those who have ten players left from the 1957 season, some of these boys are practicing, but no hard practice sessions have been made as yet.

It was reported 612 boys were given examinations a week ago, 36 others have turned in their examination reports from their family doctors, and at least 20 more have contacted Little League to report they will be examined and turn in their cards.

Some boys were unable to attend the mass examination due to illness with measles and such, others were out of town, resulting in the private examinations having to be made.

These examination cards are being sorted out and Little League applications are being processed to get them ready for the May 5th auction. The auction will be attended by Vice-President Aubrey Owens, and after it has been completed boys will be assigned to the minors within five days.

Team practice sessions will begin on May 12th and continue the next three weeks prior to the opening of the season play on Monday night, June 2.

Cards Score 6-4 Win Over Dodgers

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Hal Smith and rookie Dick Schofield unloaded a pair of singles good for four runs in the eighth inning Saturday and gave the St. Louis Cardinals a come-from-behind victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers 6-4.

Lindy McDaniel was the winning pitcher, but he had help in the ninth from Billy Muffett.

The Dodgers picked up a run in the first inning on Gil Hodges' single with Jim Gilliam on second via a walk and sacrifice, and added another in the fourth on a single by Hodges and two infield errors.

McDevitt breezed along without trouble until the seventh inning when Ken Boyer opened with a single and Gene Green drove one 30 rows up into the left field seats behind the big screen. The ball was well tagged and would have been out of most parks.

Al Dark started the big Cardinal rally in the eighth, smashing one off the left field screen for a single. After Musial grounded out Del Ennis got an infield single, sending Dark to third and McDevitt to the showers.

Clem Labine took a long step toward safety when he struck out Boyer, but pinch hitter Joe Cunningham walked to fill the bases and Smith and Schofield followed with singles, each good for two runs.

The Dodgers made a big try in the ninth, opening with successive singles by Elmer Valo, Gilliam and Pee Wee Reese—good for one run. Duke Snider grounded into a double play and after Schofield's error led in one more run, Gino Cimoli flied out to end the game.

A crowd of 30,795 saw the game.

Paper Clip Hitlers Decree
Neat Desks All Year Round

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Along about this time of year a number of mysterious signs start appearing on my desk.

They say such things as: "Order is heaven's first law." "Order is a lovely thing." "This is an office—not the city dump." "Clean up or move out."

And I sigh. For I realize the long office war between the orderly and the disorderly has entered into its spring phase. The forces of cleanliness and righteousness have launched their annual "let's spruce up the place and look neat" campaign.

One must, for some reason or another, cooperate—or else run the risk of having a battle star ripped from one's good conduct ribbon.

So, dutifully, I get a shovel and spade into the lovely mountain of rubble on my desk and load it into big cardboard boxes. When my desk is spotlessly bare, I get a crisp "Well done" from one of the top sergeants in the office reform wave brigade. But it isn't a very satisfying reward. I feel miserable until the passage of time builds a new pile of debris on my desk.

What puzzles me is why we indoor peasants who love a cluttered desk meekly bow to the iron will of these paper clip Hitlers who sternly decree, "A desk should be as clean as your conscience at all times."

Personally, I have always held that it's the man with a cluttered desk who has the clearest conscience, because the mess on his desk proves he has nothing to hide. It's the guy who keeps his desk bare as a billiard table who's the prey of inner guilt. Obviously he must be hiding some terrible secret he doesn't want the rest of the office world to know.

When I see a man perennially massaging the top of his desk with a damp cloth, I feel pity for him. To me he's a male Lady MacBeth, symbolically trying to erase some horrible blot from his dark past.

The blunt psychological truth is this: A clean desk is the sign of a frightened mind.

But in a free world a man should have the right to keep his desk in any condition he wants to, subject only to the public safety and the local fire laws. The annoying thing is that these clean desk fiends insist that your desk be as nude and anonymous and lacking in personality as theirs. That way lies tyranny, the death of identity, and the spreading blight of ignoble conformity.

To me the top of a desk isn't merely a work site. It is a tower of magic, a storing place for wonderful memories, a warehouse of enchantment and the souvenirs of

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT

In Combination With Sunday Morning Capital

Section II Sedalia, Mo., Sunday, April 27, 1958

living. All that piles thereon isn't debris, but duty layers of excitement and wonder.

It makes life more interesting to know that one can stick his paw at random into thin mass and pluck forth such trophies as a bejeweled lady's pipe, an abandoned shaving mug, or a Christmas card from the White House signed "Ulysses S. Grant."

I'd like to let my desk pile grow and grow until it was so historically interesting the Museum of Natural History would dispatch an archaeological expedition to excavate it and find out how America used to live.

But enough of this day-dreaming. It's time to get a shovel and step ladder and go to work. The order is out: "All desks clean by nightfall."

Mrs. William L. Zoernig

Miss Bennett, William Zoernig United In Single Ring Ceremony

At an altar decorated with white Easter lilies and mixed white bouquets on the side altars and communion rail with green palms along each side wall from the altar to the communion rail, Miss Shirley Jean Bennett, Homestead Apartments, Fifth and Lamine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Bennett, Hughesville, became the bride of William L. Zoernig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Zoernig, 236 South Prospect, in a single ring ceremony at Sacred Heart Church on Saturday, April 12, at 10 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. Father Schrader performed the ceremony.

As the guests were being seated, Mrs. Earl Paxton played a prelude of appropriate music and accompanied Al Domingue as he sang "On This Day Or Beautiful Mother's Day." "Mother Beloved" and "Ave Maria." The Nuptial Mass was sung by the Sacred Heart School Girls Choir.

Robert Peterson, 220 South Prospect, and Joseph Archias, Sedalia, were altar boy servers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length, princess-styled gown of heavy white antique satin featuring long tapering sleeves tipped with antique lace. The bodice was styled with a high neckline also tipped with lace and the bouffant skirt lengthened into a sweep train. She wore a high princess crown of satin covered tulle and small seed pearls from which fell her finger-tipped veil of white tulle. She carried a bouquet of white amaranthus centered with a large white orchid.

The bride was preceded to the altar by her maid of honor, Miss Joann Bennett, Long Beach, Calif., sister of the bride, and her bridesmaid, Mrs. Gayle E. Stephens, 608 South Grand. Each wore pink lace sheath dress with three-quarter-length sleeves. The bodice was designed with a scoop neckline, and a pink tulle overskirt fell from a hipline drape of pink velvet, with the bottom of the skirt encircled with inserts of lace. They wore pink shoes and hats and carried sprays of pink carnations.

The groom chose as his best man Thomas Devine, St. Louis, and James Labus of Kansas as his groomsmen. Lt. Gayle E. Stephens, 608 South Grand, and Jerry Simms, 1616 East Broadway, were the ushers.

The bride's mother was attired in a light green Italian silk sheath with matching jacket and beige accessories, with a corsage of cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a lavender dress and jacket with white and black accessories and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

At eleven o'clock a reception was held at the Hotel Bothwell for approximately 100 guests. The bride's table was covered with a white organdy cloth centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with an arrangement of ivy tied with white ribbon. White bouquets and burning pink tapers were on either side.

Mrs. Carolyn Jenkins, 530 East Fourth, Miss Sandra Dale Bennett, Hughesville, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Lou Mitchell, Dallas, Tex., were the servers at the bride's table. In charge of the guest book were Mrs. Bill Burkholder, 620 East Tenth, and Miss Dorothy Keck, 710 West Fourth.

The couple left on a wedding trip through Tennessee and Kentucky that afternoon at five o'clock. The bride was dressed in a powder blue chemise with navy accessories and white orchid corsage. They will be at home at the Homestead Apartments, Fifth and Lamine.

The bride, who was graduated from Smith-Cotton High School, is secretary at Fechtel Beverage and Sales, Inc. The groom was graduated from Sacred Heart High School and attended St. Benedict's College for men, Atchison, Kan., and was separated at the rank of sergeant from the U.S. Marines. He is presently employed at Wilson's Clothing Store, Sedalia.

Prior to her marriage Miss Bennett was honored with several showers.

On March 20, she was guest at a potterly shower given by Mrs. John Ryan and Mrs. Ernest Cummins at the Ryan home. Mrs. Gayle Stephens and Mrs. Carolyn Jenkins were hostesses at a kitchen shower given at the Stephens home, 608 South Grand, on March 29. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Robert E. Collister, East Broadway, honored her niece with a miscellaneous shower on April 3. On March 26, the bridal couple were honored with a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Fechtel at the Sedalia Country Club.

The Bride's Buffet Gleams With Handsome Tableware

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Elegance should be the keynote of a bride's table. After the children come, you may have excuses for using odd pieces of china or jelly jars for glassware. But not now. Everyone expects the bride's table to shine.

Go all out for entertaining that first year after marriage. As time goes on, it may be difficult to give charming little dinner parties.

Buy a china and glassware service you can afford. Choose an attractive china pattern that won't clash in color with food, or in design pattern with the room's motif.

You can find lovely table appointments within your means. If you can't afford a complete table service, invest in dinner plates and demi-tasse cups for a buffet style. You don't need to match silver and glassware down to the last curve. When selecting tableware, choose

Women Prove To Be Moth's Best Friend

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures

Women are a moth's best friend. Every year they prove it by treating the little pests to a spring meal costing more than $3,000, 000,000.

The annual feast takes place in the best households. The most fastidious housekeepers neglect to store home furnishings and clothing properly.

Recent opinion polls revealed that some 80 per cent of 4,000 women queried did not use moth preventives correctly, if at all. Some women are under the impression that the odor of moth preventives sends the moth winging away.

How then should we protect upholstered furniture, rugs, blankets, sweaters, other woollens, and furs?

Before packing items, make sure they are not infested. If you see white worms or little webs, take everything that was within the area of the piece that was attacked and brush off each article, sun it, clean the closet, and drawer or area that housed the item.

If you can spare one closet for the summer, store all mothproofed items in it. First, spray it with moth preventives. Some vacuum cleaners have sprays for this purpose.

Dry cleaning will kill all stages of moths, experts say, so if the items are stored as nearly airtight as possible, there should be no problem.

A blanket that has been washed or dry cleaned may be stored this way:

First sprinkle a sufficient quantity of moth preventive on the garment and wrap it carefully in aluminum foil. If you want to make the package absolutely airtight, seal folds and edges with masking tape. The masking tape makes a good label for a description of the articles that is put away. Use a big crayon and label the package — blanket, comforter, area rug, etc.

Items that are individually wrapped are best stored in a closet, chest, box or drawer. Airtight wardrobe bags are good, too, for storing blankets, because the blankets may be wrapped in a long length in foil and masking tape, and then hung up in garment bags.

A closet may be mothproofed by using two pounds of paradichlorobenzene to 100 cubic feet. Double the amount for naphthalene.

Upholstered furniture that is exposed to sunshine, light and air will not require special treatment. But if a house is to be locked up quality pieces. When buying your own glassware, here's how:

Feel edges for smoothness and regularity. Inferior glass often has scratchy or lumpy edges. Sometimes little nicks in the glassware may be spotted that way.

Look for clearness and luster that comes from repeated firings. Watch for well-balanced, symmetrical stemware shapes, with bowls, stems and feet that belong together.

Study the pattern. Is it compatible with the shape of the glass? Does the shape harmonize with your own design preferences?

You'll find that most glassware has waves and bubbles, and even our finest American made glass may hide a few imperfections.

It's wise to select china, silver and glassware that is in open stock so you can replace it and add it to your set, at your convenience. Many times a good part of the home furnishings budget is put into table appointments that become discontinued items within a few years. Those charming little glasses picked up on a vacation abroad, may be handsome, but can you add to them later?

LaMonte Officer Recently Promoted

Lieutenant (junior grade) Leslie M. Duffer, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Duffer, LaMonte, was recently promoted to his new rank while on the staff of Commander Naval Forces Mariana Islands.

LTJG Duffer, a graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University, has been on Guam for ten months, and is assigned collateral duties as force postal officer and electronics material officer.

For any length of time, the upholstered furniture should be thoroughly cleaned either with dry cleaning fluids or soap and water. Put some paradichlorobenzene crystals around chair cushions to combat mildew.

It's a good idea to brush and vacuum furniture and rugs regularly, especially dark corners under heavy pieces or deep folds of furniture. To eliminate possible breeding places, seal cracks in the floor with putty or a heavy coat of paint or masking tape.

Military, Civilian Airplane Dodge Each Other Out West

By HAL MCCLURE and DIAL TORGERSON

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The big silver airliner purred smoothly between cloud layers at 17,000 feet. Suddenly, near Nellis Air Force Base, Nev.—but let airline pilot Bob Fox tell it:

"A flight of three jets dived from above right across our nose, missing us by about 150 feet. They were going so fast that there was no time to execute any maneuver at all."

This happened in January 1957 and Fox lived to tell about it—to the Civil Aeronautics Board. Others haven't been so lucky.

Last Monday in the same area an Air Force jet and a United Airlines transport collided, killing 49 persons. Last February a Navy bomber and an Air Force transport collided over Norwalk, Calif., killing 48. Last year a jet and a transport collided and the big plane fell like a bomb into a Pacoima, Calif., schoolyard. Only eight persons died — there could have been hundreds. Two airliners collided over the Grand Canyon in 1956, killing 128.

These accidents tragically point up the growing danger of aerial collision in the crowded skies over the United States. And the problem is probably more acute in Southern California than anywhere else in the country.

Southern California — with its vast desert reaches and good flying weather—is ideal for military air training. Huge aircraft plants build and launch thousands of aircraft annually. Los Angeles is a tourist and business capital of the West.

All this makes for heavy aerial traffic.

For instance, last year more than 2,800,000 commercial, private and military aircraft jammed the 10-mile wide airways of California, the Las Vegas area of Nevada and the Phoenix-Tucson section of Arizona.

What's the answer? From each disastrous collision officials have learned — belatedly, they admit — new lessons.

After the Pacoima crash, the testing of aircraft was restricted to ocean and desert areas and all jet craft were banned from Lockheed Air Terminal. New flight procedures came out of the Norwalk crash, which still is under study. More lessons will be learned from the Las Vegas disaster.

Military pilots are warned about stunting or "firing" sonic booms in populated areas. Often their diving and rolling are only testing but mistaken by civilians as stunting, officials said.

Later this year when the jet airliners take to the air officials expect more headaches. Said one airline pilot: "Man, we're using Wright brothers rules and regulations and airways for supersonic planes."

Some airline pilots want military planes restricted to altitudes planes don't operate. But an Air Force colonel answers: "We're all in this together because we all use Civil Aeronautics Administration facilities. We'll have to solve it together."

And pilot Fox concluded: "In the Las Vegas crash, both pilots were strictly legal — but it killed a bunch of people."

Girl Scouts Attend Pin Oak Party

About 150 Girl Scouts from this area attended the Pin Oak Party held on Wednesday, April 16, from 4 to 5 p.m. at the Smith-Cotton cafeteria.

Group singing was led by the executive director, Miss Sandra Clough.

A fashion show was presented depicting a typical day at Camp. Many of the accessories were loaned by the Scout Department at Flowers Dept. Store. Models were: Jeanette Van Der Ent, Joyce Cairer, Nicky and Sherry Stauffacher, Mimi Mackie and Dee Dee Silverman.

Miss Clough showed colored slides of the Pin Oak Camp. This is the established Girl Scout Camp at Lake of the Ozarks. Discussion of Camp followed.

It was announced that registration forms and campership forms for the girls desiring to go to Camp this summer should be filled out and returned to the Girl Scout office by April 25.

Miss Sherry Stauffacher was general chairman for this party.

Chances are, if you're like most people, the two important things you need to get a home are money for a down payment and a loan to make up the difference. Our association specializes in helping you get both these things. In fact, there's no more ideal place you could go for home financing help. And here's why:

1. We know more about home loans because we make more of them—last year, one out of every three home loans throughout the U. S. was arranged by associations like ours.

2. You get friendly understanding and attention to detail from our staff which is experienced in home financing.

3. You repay your loan just like rent. A single monthly repayment is usually set up to include principal, interest and property taxes.

4. While you're saving for the down payment, your money earns excellent returns, and is insured up to $10,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, an agency of the U. S. Government.

Bookmobile Greeted In Benton Co.

Adult enthusiasm for the bookmobile service offered in Benton county has been termed "good" by Miss Jane Younger, librarian of the Boonslick Regional Library, which is conducting the demonstration.

However, Miss Younger said enthusiasm during the first round of bookmobile visits was 99 per cent better among adults at small rural school stops than in larger communities and towns.

The bookmobile demonstration is being sponsored by the Boonslick Regional Library of Cooper and Pettis Counties and financed by state and federal funds. The demonstration will show Benton County citizens the advantages of having permanent services through a duly approved county library district.

Two bookmobiles from the regional library made 30 stops in Benton county in the last month—25 stops at schools and five stops strictly for adult readers. During the first month's operations, the busy librarians checked-out 2,547 books to children and adults, distributed 35 viewmasters and reels and light recordings. In addition, 18 requests for specific titles and subjects were filled.

Miss Younger reported that the bookmobiles traveled 855 miles in their initial rounds of Benton county. Librarians and clerical help spent 166 hours on demonstration work. The regional librarians personally made five trips to Benton county, driving 384 miles to make arrangements for the demonstration service.

The demonstration service brings to Benton County readers free access to the 45,000 volume collection of the Boonslick Regional Library, plus the library's collection of films, records and art reproductions. The ultimate objective is to establish county-wide library service for Benton County through affiliation with the Boonslick Regional Library. The regional library is supported by a one mill tax, levy in member counties.

Rev. William Hall Resigns Pastorate

By Mrs. Denzil Boring

WARSAW — The Rev. William Hall, pastor of the Warsaw Methodist Church, officially presented his resignation to the church Sunday, to be effective as of May 30. The Rev. and Mrs. Hall, who have two children, Kathy and Bart, have made many friends in the Warsaw area. Rev. Hall came to Warsaw as pastor in February of 1956.

Announcements of coming events at R-10 School and PTA projects were made at the April 9 meeting. The three projects included commencement exercises to be held Friday, May 16, at 8 p.m., a basket dinner in honor of the teachers to be held at noon hour, Thursday, May 22, and a bake sale and two ice cream socials during the summer. Larry Burton and Richard Powell, winners of a litterbug contest held by the Lucky 14 Extension Club, were presented a gift.

Mrs. Jack Reser was honored with a coffee April 9 at the home of Mrs. Darace Eaton, between 2 and 4 p.m. Other hostesses were Mrs. Leland Whitaker, Mrs. John L. Durham and Mrs. Carlos Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reser and daughters, Kippie and Jackie, will move to Marshall soon where Mr. Reser has purchased a funeral home.

Large crowds have been attending the Warsaw Baptist revival during the past week and much interest has been shown, according to Mrs. Sanford Temples, secretary to the church. The meeting closed Sunday, April 20.

Miss Thelma Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hayes, is one of 150 students listed on the dean's honor roll for the 1957-58 fall semester which was recently announced by the registrar at the Oklahoma Baptist University, where Miss Hayes is a junior. To qualify for this honor a student must maintain a B average in at least 12 hours of course work with no grades below C.

Those attending a district WSCS conference in Sedalia Wednesday, April 9, were the following Warsaw ladies: Mrs. Jean Ponder, Mrs. Betty Hall, Mrs. LaVerta Gatliff, Mrs. Zelma Burton, Mrs. Laura Lee Salley, Mrs. Louise Logan, Mrs. Uellie Miller, Mrs. Maggie Bailey, Mrs. June Harvey.

Butch Swearingin and Jack Koerner, Warsaw purchased the Fisherman's Dock at Branson recently from Parry Roe, Kansas City. Koerner will begin managing the dock immediately and Swearingin plans to move sometime next fall. Mr. and Mrs. Swearingin were former owners and operators of Butch and Ann's Sporting Goods here before selling the business to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pierson.

Conservation Agent and Mrs. Claude Ponder received word by telephone of the unexpected death of her mother, who resided in the state of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Ponder's mother, Mrs. Philabaum, was on a train coming from Pittsburgh, Pa., to visit in the Ponder home. The Ponders left immediately for Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Zuber Hostess To Lodge Meeting

The Royal Neighbors Lodge in Knob Noster met at the home of Mrs. Zuber Friday afternoon. Mrs. James Livengood, orator, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Blanche Landress was a guest during the social meeting. The hostess served refreshments.
